General Who Built ROK Machine Here to See Centerville Relatives

The ROK armies, hard-pressed in current Korean fighting, are an object of paternal pride to an Army general who visited his kin in Centerville last week.

The officer is Maj. Gen. Cornelius Edward Ryan, son-in-law of Mrs. Joseph Brown of Santos Road. General Ryan, reassigned after two years in Korea, is the man who took the disorganized South Korean units after their defeats in 1950 and 1951 and welded them into a confident 500,000-man army.

WELCOME — Gen. C. E. Ryan, recent visitor in Centerville, pictured as he greeted Cardinal Spellman in Korea last Christmas.

General Ryan was head of the KMAG—Korean Military Advisory Group. Says he of his retrained, re-equipped divisions:

"The ROKs were more than a match for the Reds."

General Ryan married Mrs. Brown's pretty daughter, Inez, in 1930 while he was teaching military science at the University of California. Inez was a student at Berkeley, and their wedding took place six days after her graduation.

Mrs. Brown is understandably proud of her distinguished son-in-law. He and his family always visit her when he is on the Coast. While he was in Korea, Mrs. Ryan and their two sons and one daughter lived in Berkeley.

The general's new job takes him to Ft. Dix, N. J., where he will command another training unit—the Ninth Army Division.

Today's ROK Army is a far cry from what it was in July, 1951, when General Ryan was rushed to Korea with orders to whip it into a fighting machine.

Some of the innovations he instituted include (1) training of 1500 Korean officers in the United States, (2) replacement of equipment, (3) individual and group training, (4) non-com and observation pilot schools, and even a military academy like West Point.

General Ryan expresses confidence in the Ryan-trained ROKs. Any setbacks at the hands of the Communists are strictly tempoary, he feels. Says he:

"American commanders are extremely proud of the ROKs."

Offices for Niles?

Still in question this week was the status of two stucco buildings moved to the north side of Highway 9 opposite the town of Niles by Arnold Bellini, rancher.

One building formerly was a Castro Valley tavern, the other was the post office at Mt. Eden. Bellini says he moved the structures here to establish a set of doctor's offices for a Hayward physician. But the deal fell through, and now the buildings are slated to be remodeled and used for offices of a nature as yet undetermined, Bellini explains.

They are located in a hillside quarry recently excavated by Bellini.

Held for Superior Court this week was James Syverson, 45, of Martinez, arrested several weeks ago for the burglary of the Warm Springs Grammar School

BENEFICIARY GONE, SO'S KING'S WATCH

The parable of the Good Samaritan and the King of Arabia's gold watch was unfolded here Tuesday.

The Good Samaritan is Oris Olson Jr., Niles service station operator, who befriended a homeless man known to him as Norman Bock. Olson loaned Bock one of the rooms in an apartment he rents above the Niles Theater, while Bock looked for a job.

Last Thursday, Bock disappeared, without a word of thanks. What's worse, so did a gold watch, the gift of King Ibn Saud of Arabia to Olson's father, a refrigeration engineer who once air-conditioned the King's palace.

Olson Jr. values the timepiece at more than $500. He swore a grand-theft complaint against Bock.

'YES' VOTE ASKED ON C'VILLE BONDS

More than 1400 persons are eligible to vote on tomorrow's school financing election in Centerville.

Polls are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the schoolhouse.

Electors are asked to choose (1) whether they want a $169,000 bond issue, and (2) $395,000 in State aid.

The money is earmarked for $200,000 worth of additions to the Thornton Avenue annex, improvements to the Main Street school, and purchase of a site in Glenmoor Gardens.

Only $77,000 of the bonds can be sold now, according to Allen G. Norris, clerk of the school board. Also, Judge Norris points out, it is unlikely that any of the State money will have to be repaid.

The additions and the new school are needed to care for children in nearly 2000 new homes planned for Centerville, he explains.

PARSONAGE READY FOR NEW PASTOR

Redecorating, scrubbing walls and woodwork isn't their usual occupation, but members of the Niles Congregational Church have been getting their fill of paint fumes and stiff backs.

With the job of redecorating the parsonage nearly complete, the congregation is looking forward to the arrival of the Rev. C. W. Kirkpatrick and daughter, Petra, on August 1.

Rev. Kirkpatrick will preach his first sermon on August 2, at 10 a.m. Plans are already underway for the formal installation of the new minister with a reception to follow the ceremony.

Cooperation and economy have been the keynotes in the accomplishment of this project. The following people labored with scrub cloth and paint brush: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duffie, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Marble, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Offel, Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, Mrs. Florence Myrick, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stocking, Mrs. Keith Comfort, Mrs. Gladys Williamson, Mrs. B. J. Bunting, Mr. E. L. Graber, Robert Jones, Ray Foot, Don Patterson.

Others who gave donations or material possessions to aid the redecorating and furnishing of the parsonage were: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Leask, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chrysler, Mr. and Mrs. George Bonde, Mrs. Florence Myrick, Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, Mrs. F. V. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Marble, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stocking, Mr. and Mrs. John Brahmst, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duffie, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Blacow, and the Niles Congregational Ladies Guild.

Fred Duffie, church moderator, states that many other tasks stil await latecomers who wish to contribute their services.

ANOTHER TRY TO BLOCK 'ACRES ZONE

Contending that residential zoning of 40 acres of their property is "unreasonable and arbitrary," Santa Cruz Portland Cement Company last week filed suit in superior court to block re-zoning of Adobe Acres, west of Niles.

The land involved is bounded by Western Pacific Railroad, Alameda Creek, Decoto School District and Rock Avenue.

Residential-agricultural zoning has been sought by a group of Adobe Acres residents. Appearing before the Planning Commission, they claimed that the property is the only land upon which Niles can expand.

The board of supervisors adopted the zoning ordinance May 12 after the superior court upheld the planning commission's rezoning action.

According to Atty. John C. Houlihan, acting for the cement company, "the ordinance is invalid because it was illegally introduced before the planning commission and passed by a majority vote, 10 days after the commission failed to pass it on March 16."

Houlihan further claims that the ordinance gives existing industrial users "a monopoly." In its petition the company claims that the new zoning is unreasonable because the land lies on "a main line railroad, with a precipitous quarry to the rear and another quarry to the southeast, and within a few hundred feet of a tile manufacturing and steel forging company."

Officers Promoted

Three promotions were announced this week by Capt. R. E. Condon of the Washington Township Sheriff's Substation.

Detective Everett King is raised to the rank of lieutenant, and will go to Santa Rita for duty.

Constable Henry Vervais is promoted to detective, for duty here. Deputy Robert L. Moore again becomes constable for the Township.

The changes are effective August 1.

Flood-Curb Zone Planned in North Township for '53

The Alameda County Flood Control District intends to push a zone to curb stormwater runoffs around Niles, Newark and Centerville this year.

This word was relayed to the Centerville Chamber of Commerce on Monday by Herbert Crowle, engineer for the district.

Crowle stressed that the district still is trying to gain backing in Livermore and Pleasanton to have those areas included in the proposed "Zone 5."

But he added, "if this isn't possible, then we intend to see that a smaller zone is established, extending from Niles Canyon to the Bay."

Development of much of Washington Township reputedly has been stymied by lack of drainage and flood control. Last January, a drive was made locally to form the zone, but with Livermore and Pleasanton included, to provide for water conservation upstream too. However opposition by "over-the-hill" cattle interests quashed the plan.

"We won't necessarily wait (on Livermore)," Crowle advised. "It's our intention to seek clarification of this matter within the next two or three months."

The engineer said the district now is preparing preliminary plans and cost estimates for the proposed Zone 5. He explained these plans follow as closely as possible the natural contours of the land. They envision drainage canals running to the Bay.

"We welcome suggestions from landowners," Crowle said, "except, of course, when they are objecting to drainage works on their own property, when the property is the best and most economic place for the system to go." He stressed owners will be reimbursed for any damage to land from storm-water drainage.

Answering questions, Crowle stated:

1. Federal funds might be available for some of the work, but at a far distant future date, "and we can't afford to wait."

2. Conservation of water could be included if the Township decides to go it alone, but not to the extent possible if Livermore-Pleasanton joins.

3. Conservation aspects of the Alameda County Water District could be replaced by the flood district, leaving the water district to handle distribution alone. But, said Crowle, this hasn't been officially proposed yet.

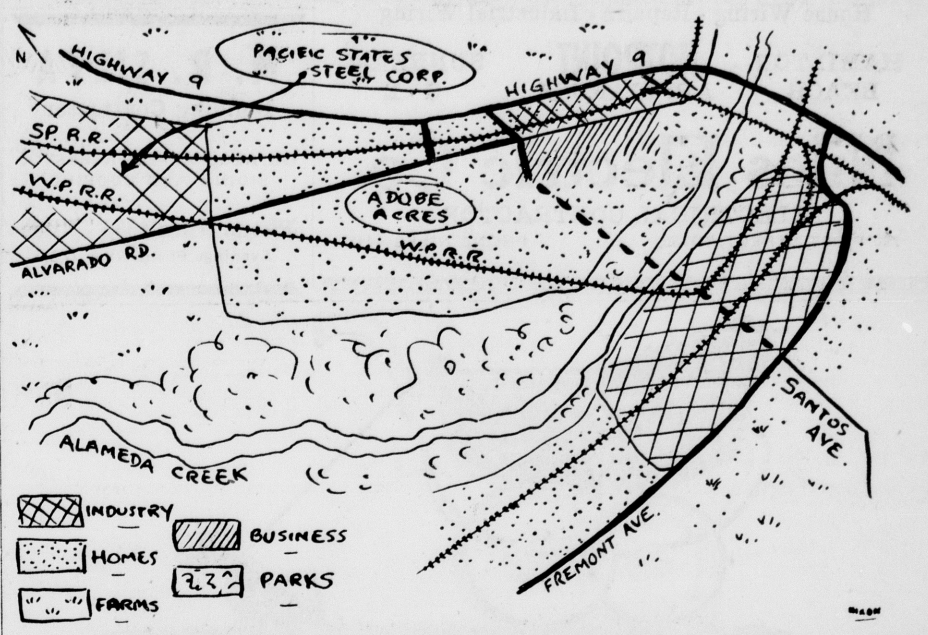
The engineer, who was invited to give the progress report, also said that Zone 6, formed in January around Irvington, probably will be asked to vote on about $500,000 in bonds for drainage work sometime in October. So will the region around Hayward, Alvarado and Hillview Crest.

Crowle listed the water problems here as threefold:

1. Floods from streams.

2. Overdraft on underground supplies, which may let salt water creep in.

3. Augmented runoff from subdivisions or industrial tracts.



A PLAN FOR NILES — Sketch shows how Niles' future would be guided, according to maps prepared by County Planning Commission and presented for possible amendment to local Chamber of Commerce. Plan will be voted on at chamber luncheon next Tuesday. (Register Map)

NILES TACKLES MASTER PLAN FOR GROWTH

In an effort to get down to brass tacks, the Niles Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday held its first airing of a county-sponsored "master plan" for the town's growth.

Secretary Vernon Ellsworth, explaining the suggested plan, spent most of his time trying to quiet the fears of landowners who were concerned that the plan means immediate zoning.

Ellsworth stressed that the plan was simply a guide, and that zoning won't come until local residents—like those in Adobe Acres—demand it.

Several other towns already have discussed and amended the maps prepared by the County Planning Commission. Ellsworth went on, outlining steps:

1. The plan is accepted and amended by the Chamber of Commerce, sitting as a town's only quasi-official body.

2. It is approved by the Planning Commission.

3. Residents then request zoning, and hearings are held.

Chamber President C. W. Chrysler illustrated:

"This is only something to steer industry and homes to certain areas which we believe best suited for them."

Dr. Joseph Enos said he was concerned that his sanatorium at Morrison Road and Highway 9 might be zoned out of business if the plan was adopted. But Ellsworth explained no zoning is involved.

Bain Leask said farmers south of Fremont Avenue are worried that their land will be zoned residential. But Dr. Tom Wilson retorted:

"So what? Then they can sell it for $5000 an acre. Whatever happened to the cherry orchards around San Leandro?"

Sole suggestion on a change for the map came from Ellsworth, who thought "maybe 50 acres or so" lying between the steel mill, the highway and the Southern Pacific tracks ought to be designated industrial.

Chrysler then deferred final action until next Tuesday. Planning Commission Secretary John J. Thomas had asked for "your comments and constructive criticism so we can produce a more finished product."

TOWNSHIP C. OF C. MAY LOSE $1800 SUPES' HANDOUT

Possbility that the Township Chamber of Commerce may lose its $1800-a-year subsidy from the Board of Supervisors was raised this week.

In a conversation with Vernon Ellsworth, secretary of the chamber, William Sparling, executive of the Oakland Chamber, which dispenses the $1800, reportedly told Ellsworth:

1. The Township group must show specifically how the money is used.

2. It cannot be used for salaries, because it is earmarked for advertising.

In a supervisors' meeting last week, Supervisor George Janssen of Hayward made the latter point. The Township organization has been receiving county money since it was formed more than three years ago. It collects a total of only $670 from the eight member chambers.

Ellsworth said he will bring the issue to the attention of the Township Chamber delegates when the group meets next Monday night.

In addition, Ellsworth said, he will render a report on meetings of a committee named to make a recommendation on whether to hire a part-time receptionist, plus a part-time field man to replace Dr. Eugene Manning, who recently resigned as secretary-manager.

It had been suggested that the chamber might share the employe with Stanley. Stanley already has hired a part-time secretary, Mrs. Byrde Duffey of Niles, who dispenses information from his office in the County Building on weekdays between 8:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

Ellsworth hinted his report will suggest (1) that the job—or jobs—be tailored to whoever the Chamber can hire, since its inducement will be small if the subsidy is withdrawn, and (2) that the committee be empowered to recommend individuals for the post.

CARRIE LAWRENCE DIES IN MODESTO

Funeral services will be held in St. Joseph's Church, Mission San Jose, tomorrow for Mrs. Carrie C. Lawrence, 78, former Mission resident, who died Monday in a Modesto hospital.

Mrs. Lawrence, widow of the late Joseph Lawrence, lived here until last December. One son, Anthony, formerly of Centerville, now resides in Waterford.

Mrs. Lawrence was a member of UPPEC of Irvington. Services are under direction of Chapel of the Palms, with interment in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Ask Broad Limits To Newark 'City'

If Newark incorporates as a city, its boundaries should spread far beyond the present built-up area, the chairman of a study committee reported to the local Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night.

Gordon Cotton said his group agrees the area should include that of the present school and fire districts, taking in whichever reaches the farthest.

Starting on the north, therefore, the boundary would go 1000 feet west of Jarvis Road, along Lincoln Road to Thornton, north to Blacow, then south to PG&E Road, then to the Bay.

Cotton said the boundaries were the first issue considered in his committee's study. Others under consideration are expenses and revenues of the proposed city. He and his committeemen have visited Pleasanton, Los Altos and Campbell in the course of such surveys, he said.

Cotton emphasized that the committee was formed only to make recommendations to the chamber as a whole—at some future date when its studies are complete—and that any move toward incorporation will have to come from the chamber.

LOSE LICENSES

Two local motorists had their licenses suspended this week for highway violations by the State Department of Motor Vehicles. They are: Charles Thatcher, of Mission San Jose, second conviction of drunken driving; and Anthony A. Borges of Centerville, for failure to satisfy a judgement after an accident.

Local Scouts Swap Treasures, See Sights at Jamboree

By LEROY BROWN of Newark
Junior Boy Scout Leader
(Special to The Register)

IRVINE RANCH, SANTA ANA.—Fifteen Washington Township Boy Scouts, still bug-eyed from the sights at the Third Scout Jamboree, today prepared goodbyes to 50,000 comrades with whom they camped, worked and traded during the past exciting week here.

Last Wednesday the Scouts, under Scoutmaster Lawrence Pine of Niles, left with their colleagues from Pleasanton and Livermore via bus for Santa Ana.

Nobody was late for the departure. The troop had been waiting for the Jamboree for months.

After lunch at Bakersfield, the bus arrived at Irvine Ranch at 6 p.m. The Scouts immediately started pitching tents in the area assigned to them. Dinner was late, and then the Township youths broke up in groups to visit their neighbors in this huge tent city.

Three tents fell down on the Golden Nugget patrol, but nobody cared much. Most of the Scouts wanted to sleep out under the moon.

Next morning after cleaning up, the troop marched over to the health tent for physical examinations. That afternoon, the Townshippers got out their trade goods and started that major operation of all Jamborees—swapping with other troops.

Thursday night they (1) wrote letters home and (2) went to the section campfire to watch a dance group from Japan.

Friday, all attended opening Flag ceremonies. The troop also was the first to go through Soil & Water, Fish & Game, and Forestry Conservation Jamboree Achievement Award tests.

That afternoon, more swapping. Don Phillips of Irvington and Mal Dickerson of Niles ended up with some beautiful specimens of agate.

Friday night the Scouts got to bed late. They attended the impressive Opening Ceremony in the vast arena. All 50,000 Scouts at the Jamboree took part.

Visitors during the week included Judge Allen G. Norris of Centerville, past president of the Oakland Area Boy Scout Council; Julius Pine and Weldon Pine of Niles.

On Sunday, the troop attended church services, and took part in the massing of flags. Later the local boys staged a demonstration of camper's arts for their section of the camp.

DECOTO TRACT HAS PLANNERS' OKEH

A 70-home tract and a $100,000 store between Hillview Crest and Decoto were approved last week by the County Planning Commission.

The approval was won by Louis J. Fine, contractor, who says he will start construction of the store first on a 20-acre parcel he owns next to the highway. Five acres must be set aside for a temporary drainage sump.

The only convertible that outsells Ford!

WHAT IS IT that makes Ford's Sunliner America's best seller? Is it its high-compression V-8 power? (No other convertible in Ford's field has this kind of engine.) Is it the fine craftsmanship of its Crestmark Body? (No body in its field can match Ford's choice of exterior and interior color combinations.) Is it its new spring and shock absorber action which makes even roughest roads feel smooth? (The Sunliner's springs are tailored to its weight.) Is it the choice of Fordomatic, Overdrive or Conventional you get? (You won't find such a choice in any other car in Ford's field.)

No, it's not just any one of these things that make Ford America's largest-selling convertible. It's all 41 of Ford's "Worth More" features . . . features which folks know make Ford worth more when they buy it, worth more when they sell it.

When we moved West we found out...

Gas and electricity are cheap in California

says Mrs. Marshall M. Carpenter, of Marysville, below

How P. G. and E.'s low rates save the Carpenters money

These are the appliances the Carpenters use in their home for more pleasant living—

The Carpenters' P.G. and E. bill (recent month) . . . $14.18

In their former home, the same amount of electricity and gas would cost $24.56

When the Carpenters came to California in 1952, they were pleased to find that gas and electricity cost much less here than in their former home. While most prices have doubled since 1938, P.G. and E.'s combined rates are actually lower! So let this bargain gas and electricity do more of your work . . . make your life more pleasant.

WALTERS' HOMER GIVES L & V EDGE

A home run by Second Baseman Chuck Walters in the last half of the sixth inning last week broke up a pitchers' duel between Joe Sanchez and Lee Telles, and gave the L & V softballers a 4-3 win over U. S. Pipe.

Both Telles and Sanchez got off to shaky starts, but quickly settled down.

The Pipemen put together one hit, two walks and two errors for two runs in their initial stanza.

The Centervilles bounced back in their half of the first, scoring three times on three safeties. Joe Gonzales, Katie Schramm and Al Silva each picked up singles.

The Pipemen tied it up in the top of the sixth, but Walters' smash sewed up the contest for L & V in their half.

Late Rally by VFW Retains Lead in Softball Loop, 8-3, Over 'Springs

Rallying for seven big runs in the fifth frame, the front-running Veterans of Foreign Wars strengthened their Township Softball League lead Friday as they defeated the Warm Springs softballers, 8-3.

The Vets had to come from behind in this one, as Warm Springs' Marcus Galvan held them scoreless for four innings, allowing only two basehits.

The losers took a 2-0 lead in the third on Manuel Azevedo's two-run triple.

When Galvan went to the mound in the sixth, everything suddenly went sky-high. The league leaders quickly solved the left-hander's slants as they banged out eight consecutive basehits. Mel Alameda's round-tripper was the biggest blow in the uprising.

The Vets' final tally was a home run by Shortstop Don Lemos. Lemos led the Vets at the plate, collecting four hits in four tries.

Welfare Need Cited

The need for increased citizen interest and participation in planning for health, recreation and welfare in Southern Alameda County was stressed by Mrs. Bruce Michael of Warm Springs at a meeting of the Council of Southern Alameda County Communities last week.

Mrs. Michael also reported on the work of a committee of citizens who are studying ways to secure more casework service for troubled families and children in Southern Alameda County's population of young families.

About forty persons attended the dinner. The Council will resume meetings in September and the public is invited to call the executive director, Miss Julia Minor, at Jefferson 7-2193, for information about the Council program.

VET SIEGE GUNS POUND BEARCATS 9-4, AT 'PALY'

By TONY ROGERS

Too many big guns spelled defeat last Sunday for Centerville's Bearcats when they ran up against a hard-slugging Amvet nine in Palo Alto, and dropped a 9-4 decision.

Pitchers John Garcia and Frank Romero limited the star-studded Amvets to nine hits. But six of these were for extra bases.

Trailing 4-0 into the seventh inning, the local club came to life when Harold Alameda homered with Stan Roderick and Joe Dutra aboard.

But the Palo Altans retorted in the eighth with five runs of their own on five hits and an error, to sew up the game.

The 'Cats garnered only five hits off Amvet Chucker Cummings. Two of these were in the final stanza, when Roderick and Dutra singled. Roderick came home with the last run on John Garcia's long fly.

The veterans were dynamic afield, plucking off Bearcat drives with professional poise.

Garcia and Dutra each fanned three batters. Dutra led his team with two for three. His singles, Roderick's two, and Alameda's homer accounted for all the hits.

Friday night the 'Cats will play Willi Oilers of San Jose at Washington Park, Santa Clara, at 8 p.m. Sunday they will play Crockett at Crockett.

AUGUST 22 RECESS FOR NEWARK REC'

Closing date of the Newark recreation program will be August 22, it was reported at the July 16 meeting of Trustees.

The program will resume when school starts. The recess is to enable the personnel to take a vacation.

Present at the last meeting were Norma Willburn, Jud Taylor, Lillian Costa, Robert Lamp, Ed Maughn and Catherine Sammon.

Applications were received from Lamp for permanent job of director; Chyrle Rice for playground employment; Robert Amaral for secretary to the board of trustees.

According to Lamp, few children are using the playground because of the heat and because many are working cutting apricots. A number of older boys and adults use the playground from 6:30 to 8, playing handball and basketball. During the day, quiet games are most in demand.

The board authorized Lamp to purchase more "quiet" games, including checkers, dominoes and shuffle board. Two horseshoe pits will be installed.

The dances for young folks are successful, with an average attendance of about 50, and more high school students coming each week. They do folk dancing for an hour, and after that social dances. Lamp and Ed Maughn are planning an outdoor dance for adults, the date to be announced later.

Lamp expressed thanks to John Santos, school bus driver, for his cooperation.

SWAP TIME FOR SCOUTS—Biggest informal activity of the 50,000 boys at the National Boy Scout Jamboree on an Orange County ranch July 17-23 was "swapping." Despite days crowded with competitions in scouting lore, pageants, hikes and swimming, the boys found plenty of time to exchange unusual or useful items. Here, Thomas Baker, 14, of Long Beach Post 31 (left) offers a pair of Japanese wooden sandals, and Howard Shaffer, 15, of Arlington, Va., an ostrich egg for colorfully lithographed metal savings banks members of San Francisco's Troop 8 brought as "wampum." Assistant Scoutmaster Lorenzo Buoncristiani (3rd from left), who works in the lithography department of American Can Company's San Francisco factory where the can banks were made, helps Kazuharu Naganuma, 14, and Roger Ryman, 15, in the "swap talk." The can banks picture a scene from the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The big jamboree was staged on a 3,000-acre campsite near Newport Beach, drawing Boy Scouts from throughout the United States and many foreign countries.

IRVINGTON TRACT AWAITS PLANNERS

Construction of a 1000-home tract south of Irvington will be the County Planning Commission started early in August, providing flashes a green light July 29.

This was the word today from representatives of Conway & Culligan, San Mateo builders, who recently announced they will build the big tract on the 156-acre Stevenson Ranch.

Last remaining obstacle is drainage of the tract, it is understood, with Conway & Culligan now offering to deepen existing ditches between the subdivision and the Bay.

Meeting At Montalvo

More than 40 members of the Washington Township Historical Society and their guests gathered last week at famed Montalvo, former estate of Senator James Phelan, at Saratoga.

Following a brief business session conducted by the president, Mrs. J. C. Shinn, the members toured the grounds under leadership of the curator, Fred Vickery, who maintains the estate for the San Francisco Art Commission.

Next meeting of the society will be in October.

Shirley Amaral Engaged

Wednesday, July 15, was an exciting day in the life of Shirley Amaral, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Amaral Jr. of Lincoln Street in Irvington.

She became engaged to Dominic Machado, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Machado of Centerville.

Also it was her parents' nineteenth wedding anniversary and her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Amaral's sixty-seventh birthday.

"Welcome Home Party"

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gomez of Irvington entertained on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Ferreira (Dorothy Enos) who have just returned from their honeymoon in Hawii.

A buffet supper was served in the garden of the Gomez residence with Hawaiian decor predominating.

Guests, who were members of the bridal party, were further entertained with colored movies taken by the Ferreiras on their trip.

Entertains Club

Mrs. Elisabeth Mendenhall entertained her pinochle club on Wednesday.

Cousins Visit Here

Mrs. Anna Bradford of Niles entertained her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters of El Cerrito over the weekend.

Convalescents

Home from the hospital this week are two Niles men, E. C. Parks and Jack Prouty.

Tomorrow is the day for all Centerville residents to vote on school bonds and State school aid. Stop in and cast your ballot, it will only take a few minutes, and will benefit all our children.

* * * *

In driving around our Township I have noticed too many cemeteries with headstones tipping, and weeds where grass or flowers should be. A good summer project for those responsible would be to see that these hallowed grounds are no longer in such a disgraceful condition.

* * * *

Use a large funnel, now available in most stores, for pouring your frozen juices into a small-topped jar. Saves spills, and the funnel will serve many other purposes, such as draining that washed head of lettuce.

* * * *

Do you experience a sudden sinking feeling, when you are in town and the fire truck heads toward your home? I'm trying to get over the worry, during the summer grass fires that send the firefighters out so often.

Have you seen the two newest stores in our Township? The dress shop and "dime" store in Newark, with plenty of parking space close at hand.

* * * *

A certain Township Boy Scout is reported to have written his family from the Jamboree in Santa Ana, "Having a wonderful time, glad you're not here, everyone else is!"

SUZY SEZ...

* * * *

Being part Scotch, ancestrally speaking, I hate to throw things away, and have finally solved my problem of numerous clippings on home decoration, hobbies, and so forth. I have set up a filing system in one desk drawer, and everything is sorted, though it may be years before I can find anything. Now all I have to do is find some way to bring order out of chaos in my recipe collection. The man of the family suggests lighting a match to them, and starting over, but I couldn't bring myself to do that!

* * * *

To make home sewing easier, tape the pattern directions to the wall behind the sewing machine and it will be an easy task to complete the garment without that constant hunting for the instruction sheet.

* * * *

I don't know how other Centerville residents feel, but our youngest is walking on air since mail delivery started, and he received the first letter. It certainly is nice to dispense with the daily trip to the post office, and I hope that other Township families will soon be able to have their mail delivered.

* * * *

The man who writes the bank advertising is not to man who makes the loans!

Don't the fields of drying' cots look attractive? A beautiful sight to the growers, no doubt, but to the rest of us, they resemble golden flowers, or maybe coins.

After waiting for some time for the traffic on Highway 17 to decrease so that I could dash across it, I agree with those who advocate a signal on the corner of Thornton and Main. Either that or an overpass.

* * * *

Speaking of an overpass, can anyone tell me why every Township road that goes under railroad tracks curves immediately to one side or another of the "tunnel?"

* * * *

So long . . .

Rezoning Ready

Formal rezoning of Newark will be accomplished as soon as the Supervisors set the date, Gordon Cotton reported to the Newark Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday.

Cotton presented a zoning map adopted by the Planning Commission, but explained the Supervisors must accept it too. He said no date for this action has been set.

"We got practically everything the chamber asked," Cotton reported, as chairman of the organizotion's zoning committee. "Especially in the line of industry."

"There were no protests, and I doubt that there'll be any."

On motion of Ray Truscott, Cotton was thanked for his efforts. The map will be posted in the local fire station.

Give your friends time to answer

The people you're calling may not be near the phone when it rings. Especially during these summery days when barbecues and outdoor living are so popular.

To give your friends a good chance to get to the telephone, why not let it ring at least a full minute.

They'll appreciate your thoughtfulness. And you'll avoid the disappointment of an incompleted call.

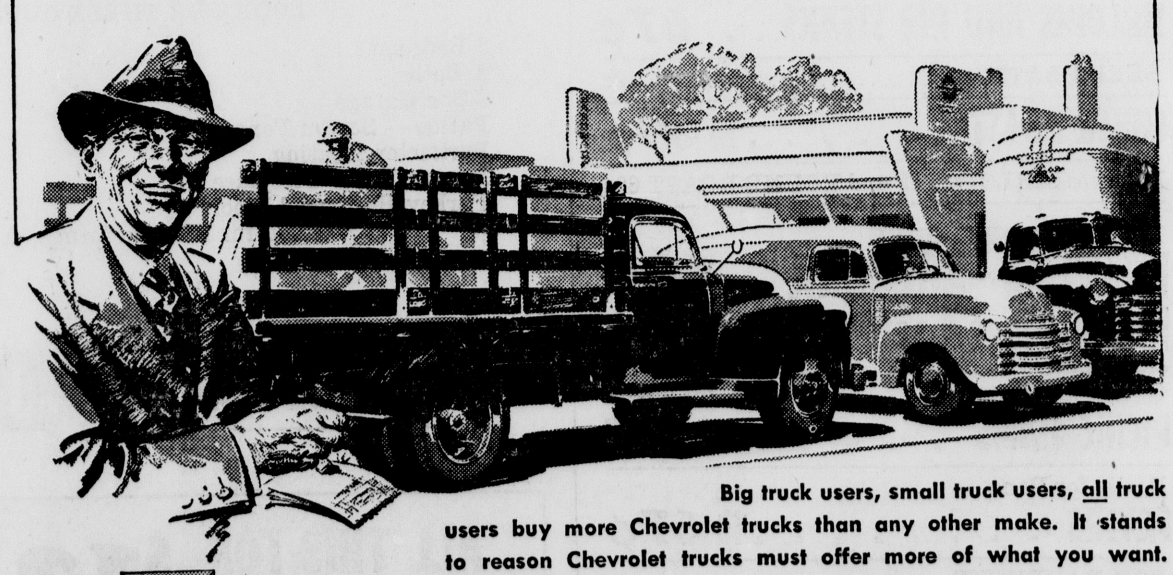
It stands to reason...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!



Big truck users, small truck users, all truck users buy more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. It stands to reason Chevrolet trucks must offer more of what you want.

When you stop to think about it, the best proof of outstanding value in any product is continued public preference. That's the way it is with Chevrolet trucks. They're the top selling trucks in America today . . . for the twelfth straight production year.

This is a mighty important fact to consider before you buy your next truck. You'll also want to consider that, while Chevrolet trucks give you more features you want, it's the lowest-priced truck line of all! Come in and talk it over with us.

2000 SEE MODEL PLANE MEET HERE

Two thousand persons attended last Sunday's model-plane contest sponsored by the Newark Model Busters and the local Knights of Pythias.

The meet was held at Washington Union High athletic field, and attracted one of the largest crowds in the history of Bay Area model plane clubs.

Two hundred twenty-two entries were received, of whom 143 were registered "flyers."

Local winners included Kenny Andrus, 13, of Newark, first in the junior payload event. Kenny's plane lifted a cargo of 13 pounds and 15 ounces, and won a wrist watch for him.

Louie Smith of Newark took first honors in the AB Beginner Speed Race, while Don Wood, also of Newark, copped top honors in the Jet Speed Open group.

"SERVING THE GREATER EASTBAY"

Down here in Niles, we get a big charge out of our colossal neighbor, the Oakland Tribune. These days, the Tribune is working hard to keep anybody from building a bridge between San Francisco and the towns south of Alameda. Its editorial armor creaking from disuse after years of comment on bird-watchers and other controversial topics, the Thunderer takes the field for the Oakland real-estate barons against those who oppose its pet project—a parallel span.

First the merits of the parallel span were discussed: it would benefit 82 percent of all Bridge drivers, against the 18 percent a Southern crossing would help. Origin of this figure was vague. But the Legislature, woefully heedless of the Tribune's wishes, went for the South Crossing. Maybe it didn't savvy that 18 percent.

Then the Thunderer reversed its tactics. A delaying action was indicated. Editorial minds were lashed into action, and a word of scorn was coined: the South Crossing is a "fish-hook" crossing. Presumably this means that people who live in Alameda might have to cut back after leaving the Bridge at Bay Farm Island.

The only fish-hook we see is the one on which the Tribune is impaled. It has been shown to be wilfully blind to the benefits of a South Bridge. It is obviously willing to lead its readers—many of them in the southern part of the county—astray to satisfy its own wishes. The Tribune purposely ignores these facts:

1. A parallel span—parallel to the present bridge, that is—would only increase traffic congestion where it already is at its worst: the bridge approaches.

2. A South Crossing would decentralize these approaches.

3. A South Crossing would serve California's fastest-growing home area, the southern part of Alameda County, including Hayward, Livermore Valley, and Washington Township.

The last argument is the best one. Why build another bridge to serve the already-jampacked cities of Oakland, Berkeley, Richmond and Albany, when you can build a highway into the growing cities of the future?

Hayward, Livermore, Washington Township have room to grow—plenty of it. They are growing at a record rate. Already they need the South Bridge. How badly will they need it 10 years from now.

The Register is still a small newspaper. We hope to grow with this area. But when we do, we hope we never grow so big and monopolistic that we close our eyes to the true needs of any part of it, simply because our financial interest lies somewhere else.

As a footnote, we probably won't have any financial interests, since we realize that the way to acquire them is to play ball with the boys the Tribune is running interference for. Anyhow, we call 'em as we see 'em—and we don't have any subscribers in El Cerrito, Pinole, or Martinez. Another blessing of smallness.

GARDEN HINTS

By GEORGE C. ROEDING Jr.
California Nursery, Niles

Rare only a few years ago, generally reserved for the lush estates of past generations, the transplanting of large trees and shrubs today is becoming increasingly popular in gardens of relatively moderate size.

The growing of such trees and shrubs, known in the trade as "specimens," is still a specialty found only at the larger and older nurseries. The reasons are obvious, for it takes many years and ample room to develop specimens, and a nursery must be willing to invest in care over this period.

Specimens fulfill many useful functions in landscape design. One, the effect of maturity and height, can be obtained in no other way except by letting time take its course. With the great home building activity of the past seven years, it is natural that entire suburban areas had the "new look," barren of large trees and plants. As this situation multiplied in all parts of the nation, it is not surprising that the more adventurous among the many thousands of new home owners began to cast about for a short cut to garden maturity.

Thus "specimens" were rediscovered, this time in the more modest sizes that could be grown, moved and replanted at costs compatible with the average budget. The largest tree giants, of course, still represent a respectable investment. But even they cost less than most people imagine, and the price is offset at least partially by the increased value of the home property after planting.

Modern factories, business buildings and suburban shopping centers have become an active market for specimens, which imply permanence and stability as well as beauty. For home or business planting, it is well to see and select the specimens you buy, at the growing grounds. For this reason, as well as for another—the fact that "natives" of a region always do best after replanting—it is advisable to obtain specimens in your own general area. Another reason for seeking a local source is that travel and handling of the trees are minimized.

Among conifers locally available in a variety of ages and sizes are firs, cedars, cypress, junipers, incense cedars, spruces, and pines, as well as the Douglas Fir (Pseudosuga) and Chamaecyparis. Other trees that can be supplied as specimens are poplars, locusts, planes, olives, palms and dracenas; yews, maples, laurels and oaks.

Shrubs, too, can be successfully placed in new locations after attaining substantial size. Some of the sorts frequently used are boxwood, loquats, arbor vitae, hollies, cotoneaster, privet and escallonia.

Perhaps the most unusual (and rewarding) specimens are the mature fruit trees and flowering trees. Available in a number of varieties, they will blossom and furnish fruit almost from the first year on—a real incentive for any new garden owner.

PORTABLE SCALE AIDS FARM ADVISOR

A portable livestock scale was recently completed for use by the farm advisor's office. The scale was made possible by an appropriation of the Alameda County Board of Supervisors.

It is custom-built and mounted on a hydraulic trailer so it may be moved to different ranches for use. The trailer and racks were built by John Logan and Arthur C. Day Implement Company, Centerville, and the scale construction was supervised by Ted Logan, deputy sealers of weights and measures.

The scales were requested by the farm advisor and approved by the Board of Supervisors to encourage the experimental and educational program of the farm advisor. They will be used to measure results of experimental livestock and breeding trials and increased production from range reseeding. Much valuable information will be obtained from such trials, and will be passed on to all livestock producers. This will allow producers to take advantage of scientific advances in the shortest possible time.

Another important use of the scale will be to assist 4-H Club boys and girls with their livestock projects.

In view of the current 4-H and adult livestock programs, and expected increases in the programs, the use of the scales must be limited to experimental and educational projects.
